

FREDERICK DOUGLASS

Frederick Douglass was an American abolitionist, orator, writer, and statesman. After escaping from slavery in Maryland, he became a national leader of the abolitionist movement, becoming famous for his incisive antislavery writings.

FEBRUARY IS
BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Frederick Douglass