

FINANCIAL LITERACY

CREATES MONEY SMART KIDS

What are needs vs wants?

A want is something we would like to have, but we don't need like video games and toys.

A need is something we have to have to survive, such as food, water, shelter, and clothing.

TIP: Help your family identify items that are needed while shopping so you can save for the things you want.